11. Maintenance. Edge may perform maintenance that may affect the availability or functionality of all or part of the Services at any given point in time. Any impact, by interruption or otherwise, on the provision of Services as a result of such maintenance will not be deemed a breach by Edge under the Agreement and will not entitle the Customer to any credit, refund, or right to terminate the Agreement or any affected Services.
12. Compliance with Laws. Edge and the Customer will comply with all applicable laws and regulations.
13. Limitation of Liability.
 - 13.1. Edge will not be liable for any: delays in the installation, commencement, or restoration of the Services; temporary or permanent cessation of the Services; errors, malfunctions, delays, or defects in routing, switching, or transmission relating to the Services; loss or damage occasioned by any Force Majeure event (as defined hereinafter); and/or to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, for injury to or death of any person, and/or damage to or loss of any property belonging to the Customer, arising out of, relating to, or attributable to the Services.

court of competent jurisdiction to have been proximately caused by grossly negligent or intentional acts/omissions attributed to Edge.

- 13.3. The Customer will be liable to Edge for any costs and other fees of Edge which are attributed to any delay caused by the Customer in the installation, commencement, and/or restoration of the Services, any change in the Activation Date made/caused by the Customer, or any other changes made/caused by the Customer in the Services which differ from those set forth in the SA, COA, Scope of Work, and/or Quotation for Services.
- 13.4. Neither Edge nor the Customer will be liable to the other for any indirect, consequential, special, incidental, reliant, or punitive damages of any kind or nature, including, without limitation, any lost profits, lost revenues, lost savings, or harm to business.
- 13.5. Other than as expressly set forth in the "Service-Level Commitment", the terms of which are set forth at http://edgecommunications.com/about_us.html?j=termsConditions, Edge will not be liable for any damages arising out of or relating to interoperability, access, or interconnection of the Services with applications, equipment, services, content, or networks provided by the Customer or third parties, with defects, service levels, or lost, omitted, or altered messages or transmissions, or with unauthorized access to or theft, alteration, loss, or destruction of any applications, content, data, programs, information, network, or systems.
- 13.6. The limitations of liability set forth in this Section will apply regardless of the form of action, whether in contract, tort, strict liability, or otherwise, whether or not damages were known or foreseeable, and/or whether Edge or the Customer were advised of the possibility of any such loss or damage.
- 13.7. Other than as expressly set forth in the "Service-Level Commitment" referenced hereinabove, Edge exercises no control over, and hereby disclaims any and all responsibility for, the accuracy and quality of any transmission using the Services.
- 13.8. Edge has no control over and expressly disclaims any liability or responsibility whatsoever for the actions of third parties other than the personnel of Edge.
- 13.9. The Customer agrees to access and use the Services at their own risk, including any and all risk caused by any transmission using the Services.
- 13.10. Unless a managed services agreement is in place between The Customer and Edge which expressly absolves The Customer of responsibility for fraudulent or excessive charges liability, the Customer is responsible for all charges attributable to customer with respect to service(s), even when incurred as the result of fraudulent or unauthorized use of service. Edge Communications reserves the right to restrict, suspend or discontinue providing services in the event of fraudulent use of customer's services.
- 13.11. The Customer waives any claim that the exclusions or limitations of this Section deprives the Customer of an adequate remedy or cause the Agreement to fail of its essential purpose.
- 13.12. The limitations of liability set forth in this Section shall survive the inadequacy/failure of any remedies provided in the Agreement.
14. Indemnification.
 - 14.1. Edge and the Customer (each an "Indemnifying Party") will hold each other, each's respective affiliates, directors, officers, employees, agents, contractors, invitees, successors, and assigns (each an “Indemnified Party”) harmless from and against any and all actual or alleged costs, damages, expenses, losses, and/or liabilities of any kind, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys’ fees, arising from any action, claim, suit, or proceeding commenced by any third party for damages to any tangible property and for bodily injury or death of any person arising out of or caused by the performance of the Indemnifying Party’s obligations and/or duties pursuant to the Agreement, except for those costs, damages, expenses, losses, and/or liabilities of any kind caused by grossly negligent or intentional act or omission of the Indemnified Party or its directors, officers, employees, agents, contractors, invitees, successors, and/or assigns. The Indemnified Party will promptly notify the Indemnifying Party in writing of any such action, claim, suit, or proceeding. The Indemnifying Party will control the response to any such action, claim, suit, or proceeding and the defense thereof, including, without limitation, any agreement relating to the settlement thereof, which in no event shall impose a burden on the Indemnified Party.

14.2. In addition to the foregoing general indemnity, the Customer will at all times defend, indemnify, and hold Edge, its affiliates, and the directors, officers, employees, agents, contractors, invitees, successors and assigns of Edge and its affiliates, harmless from all claims and/or causes of action arising out of or due to the utilization by any other person or entity to which the Customer provides any services in connection with or the utilization of the Services, including, without limitation, any of the Customer’s customers and/or end-users. 15. Warranties.

15.1. BY THE AGREEMENT, EDGE MAKES NO REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, AND SPECIFICALLY DISCLAIMS ANY REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, OR ANY REPRESENTATION, OR WARRANTY ARISING BY USAGE OF TRADE, COURSE OF DEALING, OR COURSE OF PERFORMANCE.

15.2. EDGE DOES NOT WARRANT OR GUARANTEE NETWORK SECURITY, THE ENCRYPTION EMPLOYED BY THE SERVICES, THE INTEGRITY OF ANY DATA THAT IS SENT, BACKED UP, STORED, OR SUBJECT TO LOAD BALANCING, OR THAT EDGE’S SECURITY PROCEDURES WILL PREVENT THE LOSS OR ALTERATION OF OR IMPROPER ACCESS TO YOUR DATA.

16. Disclosure Restrictions. Confidential and proprietary information that is marked as such or by its nature qualifies as such information, including the Agreement, will, for a period of three (3) years following its disclosure by Edge or the Customer to the other:

- 16.1. be held in strict confidence by the receiving party;

- 16.2. be used by the receiving party only for purposes of performing the obligations of the receiving party under the Agreement (including, in the case of Edge, the ability to monitor and record the Customer's transmissions in order to detect fraud, check quality, and to operate, maintain, and repair the Services), and in using or providing the Services;
- 16.3. not be disclosed by the receiving party except to the receiving party's employees, agents, and contractors having a need-to-know, provided that each shall be subject to the same confidentiality requirements set forth in this Section.

The disclosure restrictions in this Section 15 do not apply to any information that is independently developed by the receiving party, is lawfully received by the receiving party free of any obligation to keep it confidential; or becomes generally available to the public other than by breach of the Agreement by the receiving party.

17. Force Majeure. Except for the Customer's timely payment of Fees and Taxes, neither Edge nor the Customer will be liable for any delay, failure in performance, loss, or damage due to fire, explosion, power blackout, earthquake, flood, the elements, strike, embargo, labor disputes, utility curtailments, cable cuts, failure caused by telecommunications or Internet providers, viruses or other destructive code or software, such as worms and Trojan horses, shortages of equipment or supplies, acts of civil or military authority, war, terrorism, acts of God, acts of the public enemy, acts or omissions of carriers or suppliers, acts of regulatory or governmental agencies, or other causes beyond the reasonable control of the party.
18. Assignment. The Customer may not assign the Agreement without the prior written consent of Edge, which consent may be withheld for any or no reason. Any attempted assignment in violation of this Section is a material breach of the Agreement and shall be null and void. Edge may assign the Agreement, or the obligations of Edge thereunder, without either the Customer's prior verbal or written consent.
19. Successors and Assigns. All the terms and conditions of the Agreement will be binding upon, will inure to the benefit of, and will be enforceable by Edge and the Customer and each's respective successors and permitted assigns.
20. Term. The Agreement will remain in effect for the Term specified in the Agreement, and automatically renew for successive Terms of equal duration unless otherwise specified in the Agreement or unless otherwise terminated as provided hereinafter. Unless expressly set forth otherwise in a COA, a COA will be bound to the same Term and renewal as the SA that the COA is associated with.
21. Termination Rights.

21.1 Edge may terminate, without cause, the Agreement by giving written notice to the Customer not more than one-hundred-eighty (180) calendar days and not less than ninety (90) calendar days before the end of the initial or a given successive Term, which notice shall be effective as of the end of said initial or successive Term.

21.2 The Customer may terminate the Agreement upon the occurrence of the Agreement expiring without renewal by a separate written agreement signed by Edge.

21.3 Edge may immediately suspend the provision of Services, which includes, but is not limited to, the ability of the Customer to use the Software and other embedded software associated with the Equipment, and/or upon its sole discretion may immediately terminate the Agreement, as a result thereof, upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

- (a) Customer's failure to make timely payment, in full, of all Fees and Taxes due to Edge for any Invoice;

21.4 Upon the exercise of Edge's foregoing right to suspend the provision of Services and/or to immediately terminate the Agreement, the Customer shall remain obligated to immediately pay Edge the Early Termination Charges, and Edge shall have the right, and the Customer shall immediately give Edge unfettered access to enable Edge, to remove all Equipment provided by Edge to the Customer.

22. Publicity and Marks. Neither Edge nor the Customer may issue any public statements or announcements relating to the Agreement without the prior written consent of the other. Edge and the Customer agree not to display or use, in advertising or otherwise, any of the other's trademarks, service marks, or trade names without the other's prior written consent, which consent may be revoked at any time by written notice.

23. Legal Changes. The Customer acknowledges that future laws, rules, regulations, and/or judgments, as well as the contractual requirements of any affiliate or third party that provides any or all of the Services or any component thereof, may affect the rights or obligations of Edge to provide the Services. If any such law, rule, regulation, judgment, or contractual requirement adversely affects Edge's rights or obligations under the Agreement, Edge may require, upon thirty (30) calendar days written notice to the Customer, that Edge and the Customer renegotiates the Agreement in good faith to address the limited effect thereof. Customer's failure to enter into such good faith negotiations will be deemed to be a termination of the Agreement by the Customer, subjecting the Customer to the Early Termination Charges.

24. Miscellaneous Provisions.

24.1. Relationship of the Parties. Edge provides Services to the Customer in the capacity of an independent contractor. The Agreement does not create a partnership, joint venture, principal-agent, or employer-employee relationship between the Customer and Edge.

24.2. Amendment and Waiver. The Agreement may be amended and any provision hereof may be waived only by written agreement signed by the authorized representatives of both Edge and the Customer and which explicitly provides that such written agreement incorporates the Agreement by reference and constitutes an amendment or waiver.

24.4. Third Party Rights. No provision in the Agreement shall provide any third person or entity any legal or equitable right, claim or cause of action, or any third-party beneficiary rights against either Edge or the Customer.

- 24.5. Invalidity of a Provision. If any provision of the Agreement is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, for any reason, but would be valid and enforceable if appropriately modified, then such provision will thereupon apply with the modification necessary to make it valid and enforceable. If such provision cannot be so modified, such invalidity will not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of the Agreement provided that the ability of the parties to perform their material obligations thereunder is not detrimentally affected.
- 24.6. Survival of Provisions. Provisions contained in the Agreement that, by their sense and context, are intended to survive the suspension or termination of the Agreement, will so survive.
- 24.7. Resolution of Disputes. All disputes related to the Agreement will be referred, in writing within ten (10) business days of such dispute, by the disputing party to the other party for resolution. In the event that Edge and the Customer cannot resolve the dispute within thirty (30) calendar days of such written referral, Edge and/or the Customer may pursue all legal and equitable remedies available under this Agreement.
- 24.8. Governing Laws. The Agreement, and the performance by the parties of their respective obligations thereunder, is governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas, without regard to its conflict of laws principles.
- 24.9. Statute of Limitation; Venue. No claim or action, regardless of form, arising out of or relating to the Agreement may be brought by either Edge or the Customer more than one year after the cause of action has accrued and any such claim or action must be filed in a state or federal court serving Collin County, Texas. Both Edge and the Customer waives any right to remove any such filing from state court to federal court in the event that such claim or action is filed in a state court and also waive the right to trial by jury of any such claim or action.
- 24.10. Construction. The Agreement is the product of negotiation between Edge and the Customer and shall not be interpreted more favorably toward Edge or the Customer.
- 24.11. Tariffs. If any conflict should arise between the terms of the Agreement and an applicable government tariff, the terms of the applicable tariff will control.
- 24.12. Any notice or communication given under the Agreement must be in writing and shall be effective only if delivered personally, or sent by email transmission, or delivered by overnight courier service, or sent by certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, to the recipient at the address set forth in the Agreement or to such other address as the party being notified may have previously furnished to the other party by written notice in accordance with this Section. Notices or communications given under the Agreement shall be effective and deemed received on the date of personal delivery, or the date of email transmission, or on the day after sending by overnight courier service as evidenced by the signature of the party or representative of party, or on the date of actual delivery to the party to whom such notice or communications was sent by certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested as evidenced by the return receipt signed by the party or the representative of the party.
